Who shall act as Directors, and shall have power to employ all persons necessary, provide all rules and regulations necessary for the carrying on of the business until the first regular election of Directors, as provided for by the by-laws of the said corporation.

Seventh. Such corporation when so organized, shall have the power to conduct the business of receiving money on deposit and allowing interest thereon, and of buying and selling gold, silver, coins of all kinds, uncurrent money, of loaning money upon real estate and personal property, and upon collateral, personal or live stock security, at a rate of interest not exceeding that allowed by law; and also of buying, selling and discounting negotiable and un-negotiable paper of all kinds, as well as all kinds of commercial paper, and also buying and selling the bonds and stocks of this or any other Territory or State, or of the United States, also the bonds or other evidences of indebtedness, of any County, City, Town or School District, in this or any other Territory or State. Legally authorized to issue such bonds or evidences of indebtedness; and for all loans and discounts made, such corporation may receive and maintain, in advance, interest thereon.

Such corporation shall also have power to issue its own evidence of indebtedness, and negotiate the same to an amount not exceeding ninety per cent of the aggregate loans made and held by such corporation, and secured by mortgage or deeds of trust upon real estate, as hereinafter authorized; Provided however that this section shall not be construed so as to empower such corporation to issue notes for circulation.

This corporation shall also have and exercise such incidental powers as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of its organization, and transact its business, to elect from its members, not exceeding nine a Board of Directors, who may choose out of their number a President, Vice-president and appoint a cashier or treasurer, teller or such other officers and agents as their business may require, and as may be provided for by their by-laws; and remove such officers and agents at pleasure, and appoint others in their places. Each share shall entitle the owner to one vote and stockholders may vote in person or by proxy, duly authorized by writing, and in a director's meeting each Director's power shall correspond to the number of shares of stock he represents.

I. This corporation shall have power to have succession by its corporate name, for the period limited in its charter or Certificate of Incorporation, but not to exceed fifty years.

II To sue and be sued in any court or law of equity.

III To make and use a common seal, and alter the same at pleasure.

IV To hold, purchase and convey such real and personal estate as the purpose of the corporation shall require, and all other real estate which shall have been conveyed or mortgaged to the said corporation by way of security, or in satisfaction of debts, or purchased at sales upon judgments or decree obtained for such debts, and to mortgage any such real or personal estate with its franchises; the power to hold real and personal estate shall include the power to make the same by devise or bequest.

V To appoint such officers and agents as the business of the corporation shall require, and to allow them suitable compensation.

To make by-laws fixing and altering the number of its Directors and providing for the management of its property; the regulation and government of its affairs and the transfer of its stock, with penalties for the breach thereof not exceeding twenty dollars.

VI To wind up and dissolve itself or be wound up and dissolved as provided by law

Engine Derailed

Last Sunday morning a Rock Island engine was derailed at the junction between the Dawson and the main yards, stopping all traffic and delaying No. 2 for over an hour.

J. E. Wright is moving two residences from property sold to Dr. C. J. K. Moore on Second street, to Fourth street. Dr. Moore will build a very handsome residence on the site. Architect Paul Meeting is drawing the plans.

Every Desirable Feature in its Most Practical Form

THE NEW MODEL L.C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter

Illustrates the modern writing machine carried nearer to the point of absolute perfection than any other typewriter in existence.

"ALL the writing
ALWAYS

SOME NEW FEATURES

Gardner Ball-Bearing Typebar Joint—You know the superiority of a ball-bearing over the common friction bearing. Our typebar bearings are made of steel as hard and as smooth as glass. Run perfectly free, without play and without friction.

Instantaneous Automatic Ribbon Reverse—Works in the fraction of a second, without an ounce of ribbon strain or any added key tension. The first satisfactory ribbon reversing device.

The New Lightning Escapement for ease and speed, and the new Silent Shift, with many other valuable new features, combine to produce the first example of a modern writing machine complete in every detail.
